

Canvas How-to Guides for Faculty

A Sample Course Module

A populated weekly module could look like the example shown below:

Course Module

Week 4: Course Evaluations; Copyright and Fair Use

Activities Section:
Items listed here are links to instructor's course activities – items that students should read/review. They can consist of Word or Powerpoint files, links to Adobe Connect presentations, audio or video messages instructors can create for students to view, etc.

Assignments Section:
These are links to all of the items that students will be assessed on: discussions, written assignments, quizzes.

Resources Section:
These are links to other items that students may find helpful in completing their course work.

will unlock Jun 30 at 9am