

Primary Key

The primary key is a unique identifier for a record. The primary key cannot be the same for two records. This field can never be blank.

